

Psalm 22

Introduction

Outline:

- vv. 1-6: Jesus received the wrath of God (spiritually)
- vv. 7-21: Jesus received the wrath of man (physically, verbally)
- vv. 22-31: We receive the blessings of God

I. JESUS RECEIVED THE WRATH OF MAN

(7) All who see me mock me; they hurl insults, shaking their heads: (8) He trusts in the LORD; let the LORD rescue him. Let him deliver him, since he delights in him. (9) Yet you brought me out of the womb; you made me trust in you even at my mother's breast. (10) From birth I was cast upon you; from my mother's womb you have been my God. (11) Do not be far from me, for trouble is near and there is no one to help.

- Who were the people who did this?
- How was Jesus to respond to all of this? Peter tells us:

(12) Many bulls surround me; strong bulls of Bashan encircle me. (13) Roaring lions tearing their prey open their mouths wide against me . . . (16) Dogs surround me, a pack of villains encircles me; they pierce my hands and my feet.

(14) I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint. My heart has turned to wax; it has melted away within me. (15) My strength is dried up like a potsherd, and my tongue sticks to the roof of my mouth; you lay me in the dust of death. (16) Dogs have surrounded me; a band of evil men has encircled me, they have pierced my hands and my feet. (17) I can count all my bones; people stare and gloat over me. (18) They divide my garments among them and cast lots for my clothing. (19) But you, O LORD, be not far off; O my Strength, come quickly to help me.

What does this mean for us?

(20) Deliver me from the sword, my precious life from the power of the dogs. (21) Rescue me from the mouth of the lions; save me from the horns of the wild oxen.

II. JESUS RECEIVED THE WRATH OF GOD

(1) My God, my God, why have you forsaken me? Why are you so far from saving me, so far from my cries of anguish? (2) My God, I cry out by day, but you do not answer, by night, but I find no rest. (3) Yet you are enthroned as the Holy One; you are the one Israel praises. (4) In you our ancestors put their trust; they trusted and you delivered them. (5) To you they cried out and were saved; in you they trusted and were not put to shame. (6) But I am a worm and not a man, scorned by everyone, despised by the people.

III. WE RECEIVE THE BLESSINGS OF GOD

(21) Rescue me from the mouth of the lions; save me from the horns of the wild oxen. (22) I will declare your name to my brothers; in the congregation I will praise you. (23) You who fear the LORD, praise him! All you descendants of Jacob, honor him! Revere him, all you descendants of Israel! (24) For he has not despised or disdained the suffering of the afflicted one; he has not hidden his face from him but has listened to his cry for help. (25) From you comes the theme of my praise in the great assembly; before those who fear you will I fulfill my vows. (26) The poor will eat and be satisfied; they who seek the LORD will praise him-- may your hearts live forever! (27) All the ends of the earth will remember and turn to the LORD, and all the families of the nations will bow down before him, (28) for dominion belongs to the LORD and he rules over the nations. (29) All the rich of the earth will feast and worship; all who go down to the dust will kneel before him-- those who cannot keep themselves alive. (30) Posterity will serve him; future generations will be told about the Lord. (31) They will proclaim his righteousness to a people yet unborn-- for he has done it.

The Psalm begins with a phrase Jesus said on the cross 'My God, My God, why have you forsaken me?' and ends with one of the very last things Jesus said on the cross - 'It is finished!'
