

“Connecting People to Jesus”

October 30, 2022

“Connecting People to Jesus with Hope”

John 9:1-12, 35-41 and Psalm 46

Reformation Weekend

Donna: “It is so good to _____ you.”

I can’t imagine asking the question, “Who _____, this person or their parents?”

All too often we are _____ to our own sin.

Jesus says, “For judgment I have come into this world, so that the _____ will _____ and those who _____ will become _____.”

The man in our text not only received physical sight, but he received _____ sight and that gave him hope.

Psalm 46 says we have hope _____ the earth gives way . . . because God is our _____ and _____.

Martin Luther realized that the _____ of God is not earned, it’s revealed to you, given to you through Jesus Christ.

When Jake Olson lost sight in both his eyes, he believed that sometimes God uses _____ to create _____ for something else God is doing in your life.

For the man born blind, for Donna, for Jake, for all of us we can say, “. . . this happened so that the _____ of God might be displayed in you.” And that gives us _____.
