Hello from Pastor Goff!

One of the challenges (in a good way) in coming to a congregation as a new pastor is to try to figure out all the rhythms and routines in the life of the church. I still have more to learn here (it's only been seven months), but I think I'm catching on.

And maybe one of the things for me to keep in mind is that while there are a number of things I find myself doing on a daily basis, as well as the rest of the staff, maybe some of that doesn't always get communicated to you, and it's not by intentional omission. So, with this month's article, I thought I would highlight a few projects related to the ministry life of St. Michael. Check them out below and on the following pages!

- On Sunday, May 21, we received 32 people into membership here at St. Michael by adult confirmation, reaffirmation of faith, or transfer of membership! Two people in that group, an adult and an infant, will also be baptized in a few weeks.
- May 26 was the last day of school for ESM. There was forty 8th graders graduating this year. Next year's enrollment will again be a record year. A few of the grades already have waiting lists.
- It's not unusual for there to be some staffing changes in the school each year. However, this spring there have been seven positions which needed to be filled for the coming school year. So far, six of those have been completed, guided by the diligent leadership of our principal, Ben Stellwagen, whose efforts this first year as our principal have been exemplary and tireless. (Thank you Ben for all you do for ESM and for both congregations!) The one remaining open position is for a new position created next year, Shepherd of the School. Just this week, a call was extended to a pastor for this position. He and his family will be visiting in the next few weeks as they pray over the opportunity to join in ministry with us at ESM next year.
- With two positions to our school being brand new next year, the School Counselor and Shepherd of the School, that necessitates the need for office space to accommodate them. Our St. Michael Trustees will be working this summer on making a few spacing adjustments in the school building to accommodate office space for both positions.

- Next week, the church office staff will spend two days in a planning session for the next year (June 2023 – August 2024). One of our main goals is to see how everything we do as a church flows out of the mission, vision, values, and objectives that have been established here.
- As a staff and lay leadership, some things we will begin to address this year are church governance, future staffing needs, and facility assessment.
- We formed a small committee, led by Pastor Shawn, to update our website and our digital communication footprint.
- Speaking of Pastor Shawn, his call here to St. Michael is to be our “missional pastor.” During the senior pastor vacancy, Pastor Shawn’s focus became very generalized as he faithfully served the overall ministry needs of St. Michael. However, now we want to reconsider, together with the Elders, what the more specific role will be for Pastor Shawn as our missional pastor here.
- We formed a small committee, led by Celine Newman, to review our membership database and clarify membership status for some people we don’t often see.
- Work is ramping up for our annual VBS, led by Carrie Gould, scheduled for the last week in June.
- As a part of her DCE internship experience, we have asked Emma Deines to review and revamp our Confirmation process and curriculum goals.
- As I’m typing this article, I can hear a crew of people outside my window who are part of the “Green Team” who come here every Wednesday to see that our landscaping and exterior looks inviting. THANK YOU!

There is certainly much more to share, but this is just a sampling of some of the many things going on as a part of the ministry of St. Michael to honor our Lord, serve His people, and carry out our mission of “Connecting people to Jesus and others.” I’m humbled by, and thankful for, the many people I see as a part of this ministry on a daily basis. So thankful to be here with you!

DID YOU KNOW?

WHAT DOES THE CHURCH DO WITH THE CONNECT CARDS?

Does it really matter if you fill out a connect card or the “I am here form online?”

The short answer – yes! When you put your name on the card we record attendance and any prayers and thoughts are shared with the prayer team or staff as appropriate. When you fill out these cards, or the online form, it helps us to be able to keep in touch with you through communications that are more relevant to you. It is also a great way to get your thoughts and ideas to us.

We do read what you share on the back and follow through with connection, thoughts, and ideas. So, if you can just take a moment of your time each week and let us know you are here, we greatly value the information!

BLESS HIS WORLD

Over the past few weeks, we have been looking at the book of Acts in our read through of the New Testament together. (I hope and pray you are joining us in this adventure.) In the early days of the church, we see the Holy Spirit working.

They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and to fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer. Everyone was filled with awe at the many wonders and signs performed by the apostles. All the believers were together and had everything in common. They sold property and possessions to give to anyone who had need. Every day they continued to meet together in the temple courts. They broke bread in their homes and ate together with glad and sincere hearts, praising God and enjoying the favor of all the people. And the Lord added to their number daily those who were being saved. Acts 2:42-47

Summer is kicking into high gear as school ends, students graduate, and vacations begin! As you plan your summer, my hope is that you are prompted by the Holy Spirit to live out your faith in ways that connect you more and more to Jesus. This summer we, as a congregation, have several opportunities to be hands and feet to our community and live out the idea of helping others and connecting them to Jesus.

NEWS FROM STEPHANIE

So Jesus said to the Jews who had believed him, "If you abide in my word you are truly my disciples, and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free. So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed. John 8:31-32, 36

For you who fear my name, the sun of righteousness shall rise with healing in its wings. You shall go out leaping like calves from the stall. Malachi 4:2

Sunshine! Regardless of the temperature, seeing the sun warms my soul and puts a spring in my step. Abiding in Jesus, the Son, brings us joy, peace, and hope for all eternity. How does this affect us? We have more than a spring in our step; we LEAP; like a calf that is freed from the stall!

EMMANUEL-ST. MICHAEL LUTHERAN SCHOOL

ESM has two important things to share as we discover the plans God has for us in ongoing ministry!

1) Rachel Malone will be teaching 4th Grade next year, with Abby McCoy moving to 6th Grade. Rachel has been teaching 4th Grade at Holy Cross the past 5 years and has many years of experience as a teacher and instructional coach with a master's degree in Reading Education. She is excited to join the team! And many thanks to Abby for her willingness to serve in a new capacity!

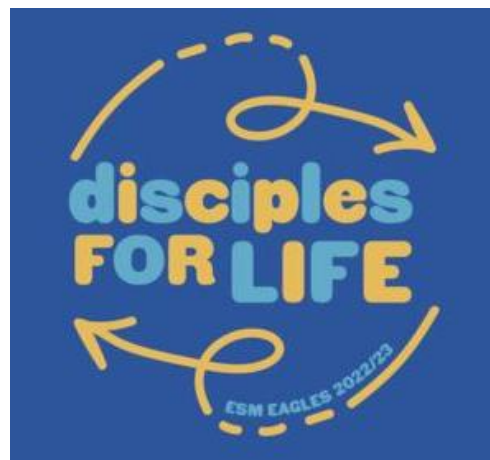

2) We have extended a Divine Call to Pastor Jeremiah Jording to serve as Shepherd of the School! Pastor Jording currently serves as sole pastor at St. Paul Lutheran Church in South Bend and is heavily involved in the ministry of their association school, Resurrection Lutheran Academy. He and his wife, Natalie, have three kids--Leah, Josiah, and Theophilus--and will be planning a visit. We wrap them in prayer for clarity and joy as they discern God's good plans for them! And we pray for St. Paul in South Bend as they do the same.

God remains faithful and His provisions are abundant. It is a tremendous blessing to serve alongside you all here. Glad hearts! The Lord has done great things for us (Ps. 126). And through you!

STEWARDSHIP COMMITTEE

In Money We Trust by John Rinehart

Most pastors don't teach on money very often and most of us don't think we have a problem with it. But Jesus said it was our number one spiritual obstacle. About twenty-five percent of his teaching dealt with it. Can you imagine if your pastor taught on money once a month?

Jesus knew that something will always be in the center of our hearts and if it's not God, the most likely substitute is money. This is as true for housewives as for investment bankers, for ministry leaders as for corporate executives. Our main rival to loving God is loving money.

From The Beginning

The worst day in history was the day we stopped believing God is generous. You remember the scene in the Garden of Eden. Satan spun a lie that God is holding out on you. You can't trust him. If God really loved you than you could have everything you wanted. The devil took Adam and Eve's eyes off God's generosity and got them to focus on the one tree God said not to eat from. And they ate.

They ate because they believed life would be better if they took what they wanted. They ate because they believed God is not generous. This is where our love of money began. We loved created things more than the Creator, good gifts more than the Giver.

Something's Missing

We all wake up in this world with those same lies echoing in our hearts. We seek security and chase comfort in our bank account balances. We implicitly believe more money really would make us happier. We may not say this out loud, but at times we can all look to money as the answer.

Jesus told a story about a younger brother who was thinking this way and eventually spoke up and asked his father for an early inheritance so he could go have some fun. He took his father's wealth and chased his own first-century version of Las Vegas. Wild parties and expensive drinks were probably the kind of happiness he sought. But at the end of every night and the bottom of every glass something was missing.

Money didn't keep its promise. The friends it bought were temporary. The pleasure it provided ran out. And the surprising reality of money set in; it's not enough. Money will fail us. Maybe not today, maybe not tomorrow, but there is coming a day when money will fail us.

Generous After All

The younger brother quickly found himself in survival mode, feeding pigs for some random farmer just to make a buck and Jesus said, "no one gave him anything." The world was cold and hard, not warm and giving. The only flicker of light left was the memory of his father's generosity. His father's hired servants had more than enough bread and they were only hired servants. He was a son. Perhaps, his father was generous after all.

Jesus highlights this as his turning point moment. This was his breakthrough. Seeing the truth of his father's generosity is what unlocked the lie. We too must learn to see our Father in heaven as the most generous being we could ever imagine. It's the way out of slavery to money. It's our first step back home.

Instead of holding out on us, God desires good for us and is working all things for our good all the time. (Romans 8:28) He even gave us his one and only son! God doesn't prevent all pain and struggle because his goal is our Christlikeness, but make no mistake, his heart is to bless us, to provide for us, and to give us good gifts. Do you see God this way? This is what I invite you to.

Every coin and bill of US currency has "In God We Trust" printed on it because our temptation is just the opposite. Like the prodigal son, we need to see and remember who our Father truly is. This is the life that's truly life.
